

THE PAGE

THE
HOME
EDITION

Spring Ahead

on TREND

Color wash

By DIANE COWEN

Spring blooms are always a welcome sight in March. Here are some bright, fresh home goods that remind us of the season.

Nelson Coconut chair

George Nelson designed his Coconut Lounge Chair in 1955, and Herman Miller offers it today in sustainable materials with a polymer hull on a bent steel base. $3,595; hermanmiller.com

Kapsel sofa

Danish designer Chris Halstrom wanted to create a big, relaxing sofa in her first collection for Design Within Reach, and the Kapsel sofa is the result. $5,595; dwr.com

About A Lounge 87

The About A Lounge 87, created by Danish designer Hee Welling, has a soft, sculpted seat and a chrome or powder-coated steel base. $1,495; hay.dk

Bead Baskets

Artisans in Nepal make these Bead Baskets using hand-rolled felt balls woven into colorful graphic patterns. $195; hay.dk

Marbled pillow

The marbled effect on Anaya Home's linen pillows comes from the Japanese Suminagashi technique of placing drops of ink onto water. The 20-inch pillow comes in turquoise, pink and gray. $50; anayahome.com

Upbeat Table Lamp

Currey and Company's Upbeat Table Lamp, standing 31 inches tall, comes in antique white, yellow, orange and teal. $387.20; lightology.com

Milo Aluminum 1065

Louis A. Lara designed the Milo Aluminum 1065 to work indoors and out, easily repositioned as either a laptop stand or mobile side table. $555; at Danish Inspirations, 2775 Fondren; Cantoni, 9889 Westheimer; and bdiusa.com

Formr shelves and tables

Formr reduces construction waste and teaches skills to people who were formerly incarcerated. Products include wall-mount shelves, a laptop desk/side table and candle holders in a variety of sizes and colors. $99-$269; theformr.com

Enameled oyster shell

Michael Aram's Ocean Reef Oyster Shell enameled bowl is large enough to hold a bottle of bubbly. $525; michaelaram.com

Ombre linen napkins

Michael Aram uses softly evolving blues and grays in his After the Storm ombre linen dinner napkins. $90 for a set of 4; michaelaram.com and Neiman Marcus